1 April 2018

Responsorial psalm: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia (Ps 117).

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Christ, our passover, has been sacrificed; let us celebrate the feast then, in the Lord.

Communion Antiphon: Christ our Passover has been sacrificed, alleluia; therefore let us keep the feast with the unleavened bread of purity and truth, alleluia, alleluia.

SUNDAY COLLECTION: £664.30

Many thanks for your generosity

FEASTS OF THE WEEK: Octave of Easter all week.

NOTICES

ABOUT BEING CATHOLIC (RCIA) – Thursdays at 7.30pm in the parish house. This will be taking a break until 26 April. Congratulations to Cameron Morrison and Alan Weir, who were received into the Church at the Easter Vigil, and to Lynne Howie, who received adult confirmation.

Catholic Publications – Do pick up at the back of the church the Scottish Catholic Observer, Scotland's weekly Catholic paper. Bible Alive for April is now available, with reflections on the readings for each day of the month.

POUND CLUB DRAW – this month's winner: Tamsin Foley (Mary Kinlon's granddaughter). Congratulations.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL – the next meeting is on Tuesday 24 April, not Thursday 26 April, as in the bulletin last week.

ROSARY ON THE COAST – a final opportunity to put your names on the list if you want to travel by coach to Cramond on Sunday 29 April 3pm, to say the rosary with other parishes for a Culture of Life and Peace.

EASTER BANK HOLIDAY MONDAY – morning Mass at 11am, instead of 9.30am.

RESURRECTION2018 – Easter musical event at Usher Hall 7.30pm tonight (1 April). For free tickets: www.originscotland.org or 0131 208 0095

trypraying – download the app. Very interesting and helpful, even though it is aimed at those who don't go to church but who may have a suspicion that God is around. Catholics, practising or non-, will find it worthwhile.

THANK YOU – to everyone who helped to get the church ready for the Holy Week ceremonies. It is the most complicated time of the year, and even the clergy forget everything that is supposed to happen. But we got there. And thank you to all who attended the services. There's no Church without you, the people.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY – next Sunday, 3pm, St Mary's Catholic Cathedral, for a special prayer event, finishing at 5.30pm.

Our Wee Community: a very special visitor will be coming to visit the Augustinian community next Sunday, leaving the following day. He is Fr Alejandro Moral, the Prior General of the Augustinians, the Head of the Order, who lives in Rome. Don't worry, it's a routine visit; we haven't done anything wrong! He is flying in to Edinburgh directly from Rome, and then going on to visit our other four communities in England.*

It was good to be able to join the Revd Michael Mair and his parishioners in St David's for an ecumenical service on the Monday of Holy Week. Then on Wednesday, he joined us for Stations of the Cross and gave a lovely homily on the words of Jesus, 'My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?' It's good to be reminded that we share our Christian faith with other churches, all of which struggle with numbers as a result of living in a very secular and largely non-religious society. I was encouraged to see an ad on the back of a bus this week, advertising the prayer app called 'trypraying' (see bulletin above). It gives one hope.

*Fr Ian, Fr Sean and myself wish everyone a very HAPPY AND JOY-FILLED EASTER.

Fr Paul
