CARDINAL KEITH O'BRIEN RIP – Month's Mind Mass, Thurs 19 April, St Mary's Cathedral, 12.45pm.

Our Wee Community: Easter Week is usually fairly quiet, but I had to bury a first cousin of my father's, aged 96. From a humble north of England background, she had a distinguished teaching career in British schools abroad. The funeral was in Cambridge on Wednesday, followed by the burial in Bradford the following day. Quite a lot of travelling. May Mary rest in peace.

As I mentioned last week, the Prior General, Fr Alejandro Moral, is arriving late afternoon today. Unfortunately, you won't be able to meet him, unless you come to Mass tomorrow morning (Monday). But Fr Robert, our Provincial, will be at the 11am Mass.

I'm taking a short break 9-18 April, leaving the parish in the capable hands of Frs Ian and Sean. As well as relaxing, I plan to attend a conference on Pope Francis. The theme is his vision for the Church. I hope to come back all fired up, so be warned.

On behalf of the three of us, thank you for all the cards and gifts for Easter, especially the home-cooked food. Kept us going!

Fr Paul
