Depending on the number who are interested, we can join the group going from St John Ogilvie parish, or hire our own mini-bus. Some may wish to travel by car; if so there's no need to put your name down.

NEWCOMERS to the parish are very welcome. Please make yourselves known to one of the priests. And it would be a great help if you kindly filled in one of the blue Parish Census Forms at the back of the church and handed it in to a priest.

BEFORE MASS it would good if chatting were kept to a minimum. Many like to pray before Mass, to prepare themselves for the miracle that is about to take place. In future, before the 11am Mass Sue will be playing religious music, so that we can 'gather' spiritually and mentally.

ENJOY the fine summer weather.

Our Wee Community: Welcome back to Fr Ian from his break. Fr Sean is back with us today after supplying in Dalkeith for two weekends. I am in Lourdes this weekend with a group of mainly African pilgrims from London, returning on Saturday. St Joseph's will be very much in my prayers. The weather should be fine, but just in case I have my rain poncho.
