Our Wee Community: Last Sunday afternoon the Prior General Fr. Alejandro Moral and the Assistant General Fr. Franz Klein arrived to make an official visitation of all the houses and friars of the English Scottish Province. Naturally they started with the best and so begun their time in the Province here in Edinburgh. The purpose of the visitation is for the Fr. General and his assistant to meet with us as a community and then each friar has the opportunity to meet with the Fr. General on an individual basis. While visiting the houses they check the minutes of our community meetings, and that we are keeping an accurate record of our accounts and that we are recording the masses that we are celebrating. The books are then signed by the Fr. General and the Assistant and stamped with the seal of the Augustinian Order. I am pleased to say all went very smoothly. Fr. Paul as you know is in the States attending a series of talks on the Papacy of Pope Francis. I am just back from Provincial Council Meetings in Hammersmith, London. In the mean time Fr. Sean has been the anchor man holding everything together in the Parish. Finally, a quote from St. Augustine re SILENCE which is an essential part of our worship together especially as we prepare ourselves before Mass begins. “God speaks to us in the great silence of our hearts.”
